

Homework? Group Projects?

- 🐾 Research efficiently! You've got plenty of other things to do--reference librarians in the Miller Learning Center and the Main and Science Libraries can help you find books and articles in minutes.
- 🐾 Work smart! Use the best information sources, cite them properly, and avoid plagiarism.
- 🐾 Get beyond Google! Use over 400 databases provided by the Libraries through GALILEO to find professionally written and scholarly articles, on or off campus.

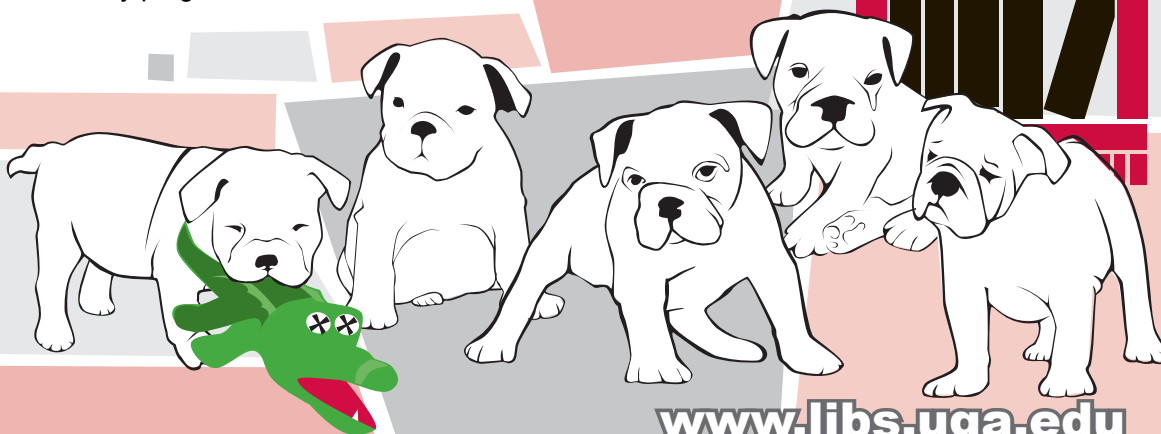

Job Search or Grad School?

- 🐾 You want fries with that? Avoid the nametag and hairnet--find a career path to fit you major and your goals.
- 🐾 What do you mean Lehman Bros. isn't hiring? Be the best prospect ever with the latest information on the companies you want to work for.
- 🐾 See the world! Find information on internships, scholarships, and study abroad programs.
- 🐾 Rule the world! MBA, MD, PhD, JD, DDS--find graduate or professional schools (and financial aid)
- 🐾 Join the real world! Salaries, housing, major employers, cost of living--do some research before you move to a new state or city.

What the UGA Libraries can do for your sorority or fraternity:

- 🐾 Maximize your group study hours with instruction in library resources and individual research conferences.
- 🐾 Raise your chapter GPA: take advantage of a world-class research library, write better papers, and get better grades! We tailor our presentations to the needs of the group. Come to the Libraries or our librarians will come to you!
- 🐾 Sit down with your whole chapter: the Miller Learning Center has meeting spaces with media display and internet capability. Reserve a classroom in the MLC through Campus Reservations for study, meetings, or video screenings by contacting Campus Reservations: 706 542-583-8020 or rsvtdesk@uga.edu
- 🐾 Find your history: we can help you find unique materials for your chapter histories, Founders' Day programs, and other events!
